what should a church do look at your church s calendar and you will learn something of its mission but how do you know it s the mission jesus gave in the life of the church joe thorn explains the mission of the church and the three rhythms for fulfilling it the result is a simple memorable model for church life and ministry grounded in scripture and aligned with historic practices useful for training in membership class discipleship groups and elder boards and even for devotional reading the life of the church is at once theological practical and experiential readers will not simply be informed but led to a deeper conviction about their role in the body of christ pastors will be equipped to refocus their ministries and christians to fulfill their purpose be and make disciples if you wonder what it means to be saved into a body of believers why the various parts of a worship service matter and how to engage in the world as a citizen of heaven then the life of the church is for you it answers this critical question why does the church exist and how does it shape my life in historical theology for the church editors jason duesing and nathan finn survey key doctrinal developments from four periods of church history the patristic ad 100 500 medieval ad 500 1500 reformation ad 1500 1700 and modern ad 1700 2000 eras

this book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the lord in his word at the same time it provides a limited review of the international training for elders and responsible ones webcast from anaheim california on april 16 18 2021 the general subject of the training was vital factors for the recovery of the church life through intimate contact with the lord in his word the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the body of christ as the protestant reformers did so twenty first century christians also recognize the need to distinguish between the true and false church thus they find themselves looking closely at the modern church to determine whether it is a true and faithful church today s christians know that proper criteria are necessary to discern the true church the most common criteria wrote john calvin are that the word of god is rightly preached and heard and that the sacraments are administered according to christ s institution moreover martin luther said that suffering is a telltale sign of god s people while anabaptist and reformed christians included discipline among the distinguishing marks of the church these standards take on particular poignancy today the global church continues to live under severe persecution and the american church characterized by a lack of discipline has been wounded by its own sins of chasing sex and power in this collection of essays first given at annual meetings of the evangelical theological society the authors take time to reflect on the reformational marks of the church in order to help reform christ s bride with contributions from edward w klink iii duane litfin j stephen yuille j v fesko keith d stanglin greg cochran jeremy m kimble guy waters justin l mclendon jesus said he would build his church our job is to follow the church of the open door calls us to a dynamic spirit filled life as the body of christ warren wiersbe s study of acts the epistles and revelation paints a picture of what the church should do and be skim the book of acts and you ll find a church that s bold energetic empowered unstoppable a church in fact that looks nothing like the one we have today little wonder so many believers jump from congregation to congregation searching in vain for the real thing in the church ken hutcherson reveals how god s original intention for his church has been distorted under stifling layers of tradition denominationalism racism and fear only when we strip away those layers will we discover god s unchanging heart for the church and his unchanging will for us to be a people of truth of power of reconciliation and of love
